

Approved For Release 2000/08/26 : CIA-RDP75-00001R000400330013-4

New Chairman Elected

The Arlington County School Board elected Dr. John Reed Spicer chairman for the 1965-66 fiscal year. Spicer has been president of the Woodmont Elementary School Parent-Teachers Association, a member of the Stratford Junior High School Parent-Teachers Association executive committee and of advisory committees at Stratford and Washington-Lee High School before being appointed to the school board in January, 1964. Spicer immediately took over the duties from the immediate past chairman, Laszlo L. Ecker-Racz. Spicer had been vice-chairman for the past year. Now an employee of the Central Intelligence Agency, he has had 20 years' experience as a teacher and school administrator. Stockard is a past chairman of the school board and a former teacher. He is presently employed by the Agency for International Development.